

CIVIL ENGINEERS' CLUB:
REPORT OF THE BRUNEL TROPHY CONTRACT BRIDGE COMPETITION 2009

The twentieth competition was held on 9 October 2009 at the Young Chelsea Bridge Club in Earls Court, London. Eight teams entered and the competition was as always fierce.

The winning team was Jam Jars- a scratch team consisting of Jan Deterding, Robert Balchin, John Stimson and Martin Baker. They are shown in the photograph below. Congratulations are due to them all and well played to all the other players.

After the bridge the evening dinner was again taken in the nearby Little French restaurant. This is a very pleasant and intimate local restaurant which looked after us well.
