

Civil Engineers' Club Walk

This event is being organised by the Civil Engineers' Club, but any friends wishing to join us will be welcome.

Date: Saturday 14 May 2022

Time: Meet at 10.00 am for Start at 10.15 am

Meeting Point: Outside Greenwich BR station
BR trains come from London Bridge
DLR trains come Lewisham and via Canary Wharf

Distance The distance will be about 4 miles before lunch and 4 miles afterwards.

Background This walk is the last one of a series taken over several years by CEC along the Thames Towpath from Hampton Court to the Thames Barrier via Richmond, Putney, Waterloo and Greenwich.

Overview: The morning walk will be around Greenwich Park.
After lunch, the walk will be along the Thames Towpath to the Thames Barrier.

Route: On leaving Greenwich BR Station we walk to Greenwich Park. We walk around the park visiting various point of interest before taking a break near the Wolfe statue and the Royal Observatory. After the break, we will continue around the park before going to the area near the Cutty Sark for a lunch break.

Note There are two steep, but short, hills within the park, one up, one down.
After lunch we walk along the Thames Towpath past the O2 Arena to the Thames Barrier where we will have a presentation about the Thames Barrier at the visitor centre. There will be a small subsidised nominal charge of £2 for this presentation.

Lunch: Lunch will be in the area near the Cutty Sark.
There are numerous restaurants, cafes, pubs and fast-food outlets nearby plus picnic facilities.

Afternoon walk: If anyone wishes to only join the Thames Towpath walk and Barrier visit in the afternoon, they will be most welcome. Meet us at the Cutty Sark at 12.30pm.
